- White 7-count plastic canvas (1 sheet)
- Dolphin Blue 7-count plastic canvas (1 sheet)
- Turquoise 7-count plastic canvas (1 sheet)
- Dark Blue

7-count plastic canvas (1 sheet) - 20-gauge tapestry needle - White worsted weight yarn - Dolphin Blue worsted weight yarn - Turquoise worsted weight yarn - Dark Blue worsted weight yarn - Scissors - Yarn needle

Step-by-Step Instructions

Step 1: Create the Main Body

- Cut a 10x5 inch rectangle from the white plastic canvas. - Begin stitching around the perimeter using white yarn, leaving a 2-inch gap on one side. - Continue stitching around the rectangle, decreasing one stitch in each corner.

Step 2: Add the Upper Border

- Cut three 1x5 inch strips of white plastic canvas. - Stitch these strips along the top edge of the main body, overlapping the corners slightly.

Step 3: Create the Dolphin

- Cut out the dolphin shape from the dolphin blue plastic canvas. - Begin stitching around the dolphin using dolphin blue yarn, leaving a 2-inch gap on the bottom edge. - Continue stitching around the dolphin, decreasing one stitch in each corner.

Step 4: Join the Dolphin and Main Body

- Place the dolphin onto the upper border of the main body, aligning the bottom edges. - Stitch the dolphin to the main body using white yarn.

Step 5: Add the Waves

- Cut two 1x5 inch strips of turquoise plastic canvas. - Stitch these strips along the bottom edge of the main body, slightly overlapping the corners.

Step 6: Create the Starfish

- Cut out the starfish shape from the dark blue plastic canvas. - Begin stitching around the starfish using dark blue yarn, leaving a 2-inch gap on the top edge. - Continue stitching around the starfish, decreasing one stitch in each corner.

Step 7: Join the Starfish and Waves

- Place the starfish onto the turquoise strips, aligning the bottom edges. - Stitch the starfish to the waves using white yarn.

Step 8: Finish the Tissue Box Cover

- Close the 2-inch gap on the main body and dolphin using white yarn. - Insert a tissue box into the cover. - Enjoy your charming coastal creation!
