Safe and Sound Sisterhood 29 is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing support and resources to survivors of domestic violence. We offer a variety of services, including safe housing, counseling, legal assistance, and financial aid. Our mission is to empower survivors to rebuild their lives and break the cycle of violence.

Our Services

- Safe housing: We provide safe and affordable housing to survivors of domestic violence and their children.
- Counseling: We offer individual and group counseling to help survivors cope with the trauma of domestic violence and rebuild their lives.

- Legal assistance: We provide legal assistance to survivors of domestic violence, including help with obtaining restraining orders, divorces, and child custody.
- Financial aid: We provide financial aid to survivors of domestic violence to help them with expenses such as rent, utilities, and food.

Our Mission

Our mission is to empower survivors of domestic violence to rebuild their lives and break the cycle of violence. We believe that every survivor deserves to live a life free from violence and abuse. We are committed to providing the support and resources that survivors need to heal and thrive.

How You Can Help

There are many ways you can help Safe and Sound Sisterhood 29 continue to provide support and resources to survivors of domestic violence. You can:

- Donate money: Your financial support helps us to provide essential services to survivors of domestic violence.
- Donate goods: We accept donations of clothing, furniture, and other household items for our safe houses.
- Volunteer your time: We rely on volunteers to help us provide our services to survivors of domestic violence.
- Spread the word: Help us raise awareness about domestic violence and the services we provide by sharing our information with your friends and family.
